

The Stanley Theater Announces Opening Act for Michael McDonald Local Singer/Musician Rick Zuccaro

BY THERESA MANCUSO OCTOBER 17, 2016

Friday, November 18th at 8:00pm at The Stanley Theatre, Utica

SHARE

Utica, N.Y. (October 17, 2016) – The Stanley Theater is proud to announce local musician and singer Rick Zuccaro will perform an opening set at the upcoming Michael McDonald concert on Friday, . Rick Zuccaro has been writing, producing, recording and performing music all of his life. Rick has also been very involved with helping local youth music programs by donating fifteen Yamaha pianos to local Elementary Schools. Stanley Executive Director Jerry Kraus said, "We are excited to help Rick achieve a life-long dream as the opening act for one of his all-time hero's in the music world, the Multi-Grammy Award winner Michael McDonald. All of us have heard Rick playing music for many years, including his Billy Joel tribute here during Boilermaker weekend. Now to have Rick Zuccaro opening for Michael McDonald is something we hope will help us achieve a sold out evening! Our local piano man will join one of music's legendary artists, all in one night, on one stage at our incredible historic Stanley Theater. Ricky Z. will perform his original solo music and Michael McDonald with his band will follow with his chart-topping popular hits. This will be a must-see performance!"

0

0

0

A special pre-concert dinner is also being offered at the Radisson Hotel, with a limited number of reservations available by calling The Stanley's box office at 724-4000. Dinner

